

THIS WEEKEND

NEW READS AND EVENTS NOT TO BE MISSED

A LITTLE ROMANCE...

Pack a picnic and a bottle of bubbles and head out to THE GALILEO OPEN AIR CINEMA at Nooitgedacht Wine Estate on 14 February and enjoy Baz Luhrmann's 1996 Romeo + Juliet adaptation starring Leonardo DiCaprio and Claire Danes, under the stars. R225 per person includes a blanket, backrest, welcome drink, chocolate and a sweet treat. Tickets at Thegalileo.co.za

Or take in dinner and a movie at your favourite cinema complex – February releases include ISN'T IT ROMANTIC?, which focuses on a New York architect who gets knocked unconscious during a subway mugging and wakes up to find herself in an alternate universe and playing the leading lady in a real-life romantic comedy. Starring Rebel Wilson, it opens at cinemas countrywide on 14 February.

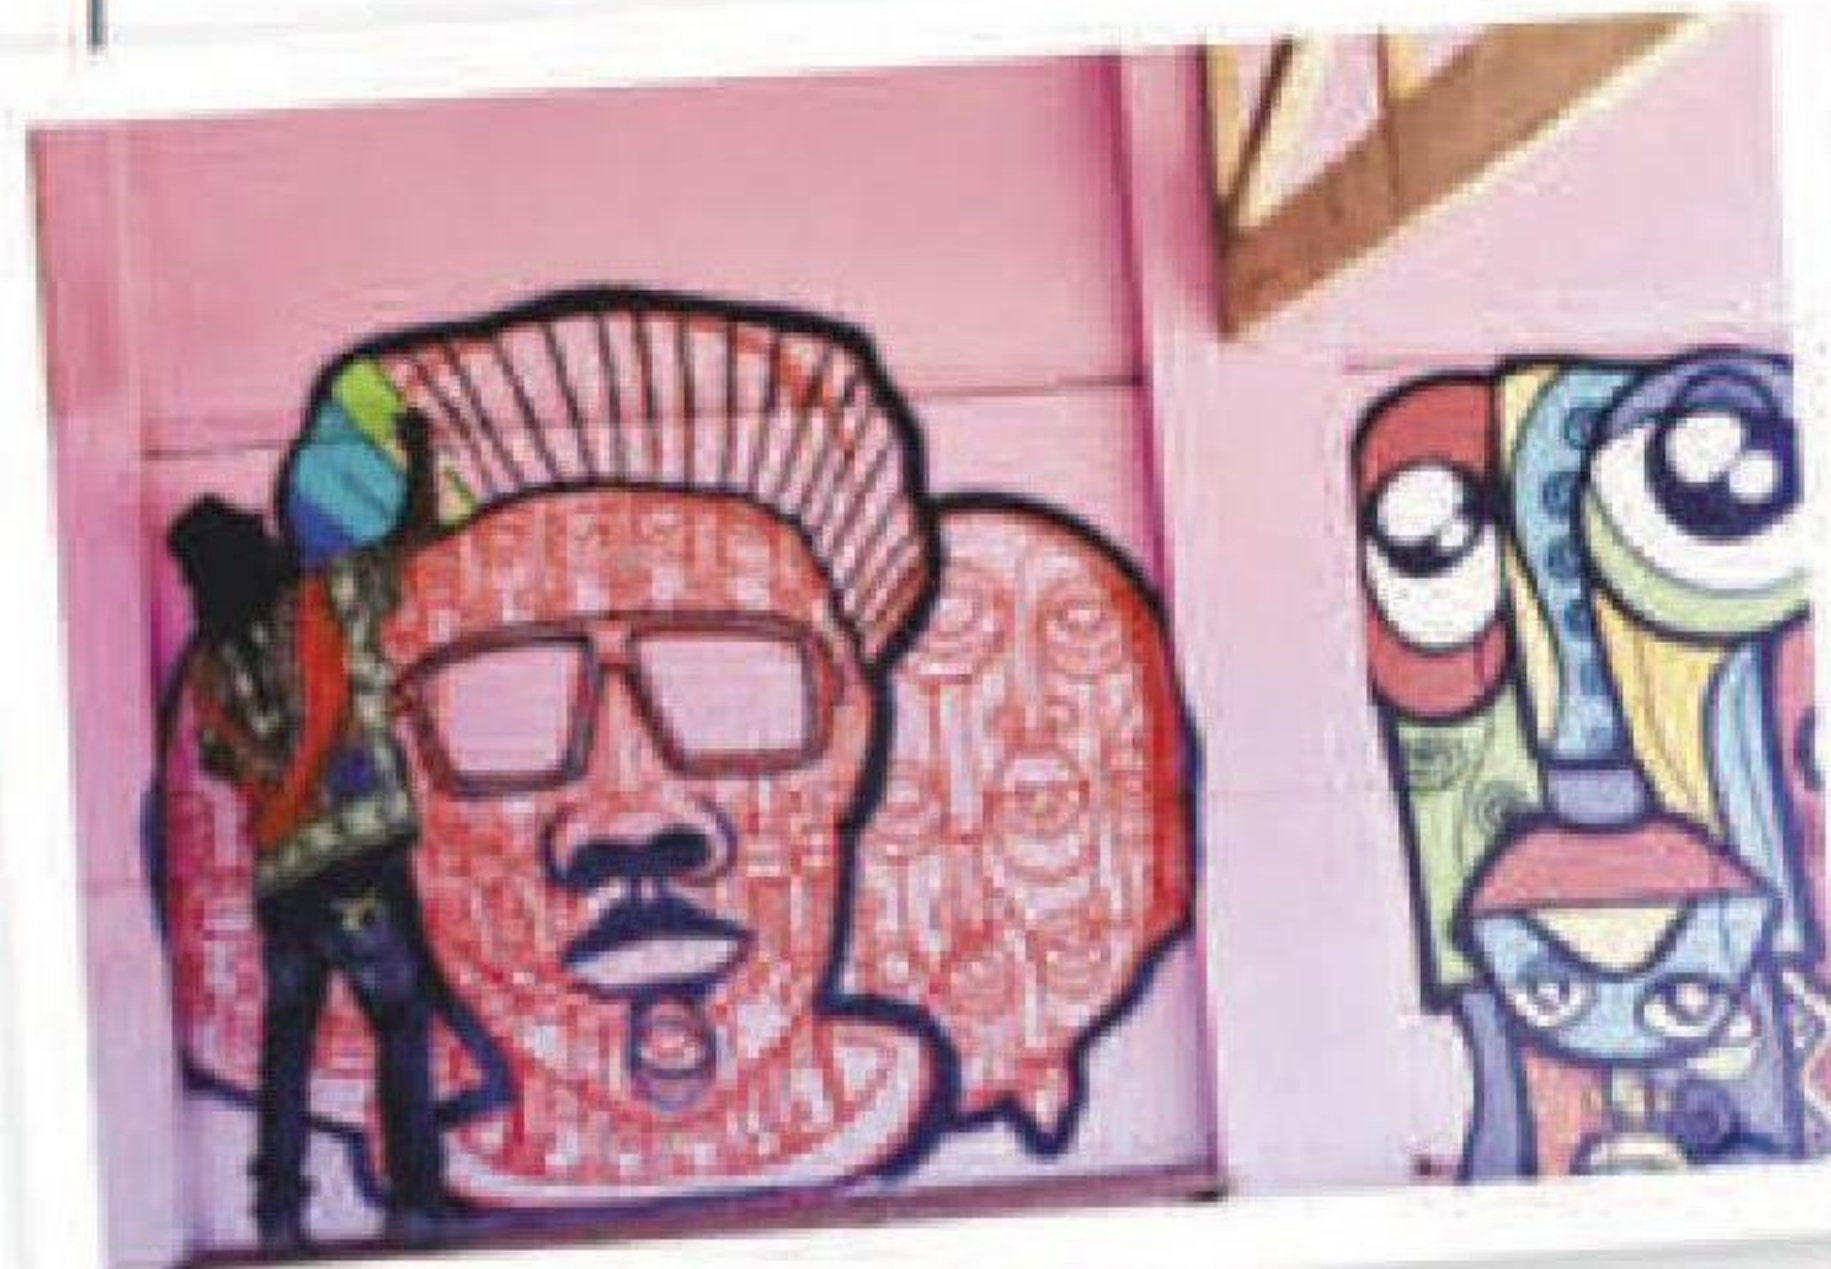

Or perhaps dinner and a show? And what's not to love about Abba! THE ABBA SHOW takes place at Emperors Palace until 10 February and gives fans of all ages a chance to relive memories, make new memories – and sing along to all the words! Booking at Computicket.

A LITTLE ART...

Two fabulous art options in Cape Town this month! More than 100 galleries and exhibitors from around Africa and the world will be taking part in the INVESTEC CAPE TOWN ART FAIR, at the Cape Town International Convention Centre (CTICC) from 15-17 February. Now in its seventh edition, it offers visitors the best of contemporary African and international art, emerging artists, as well as a range of talks on topics including collecting digital art, and issues of copyright. Visit Investeccapetownartfair.co.za

Taking art into the streets and making it accessible to everyone, the third INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC ART FESTIVAL (IPAF) takes place in Salt River from 9-17

February. The theme is Generation Next: Educate, Collaborate, Empower, and it offers nine days of live art and entertainment, as well as street art tours, arranged by Baz-Art, a non-profit organisation dedicated to harnessing the power of art for the benefit of the public. ## A LITTLE EXERCISE...

The 5th annual SANLAM CAPE MILE takes place at Eikenhof Dam (Elgin, Grabouw) on 17 February. The Western Cape's most exhilarating open water swim, it offers two distances – the 1 mile (1.6km) for those who enjoy distance swimming and the shorter 500m swim.
